FOXFIRE GOLF CLUB
featuring The Players Club

"FOXFIRE SPOTLIGHT"

Foxfire Golf Club is proud to feature one of our beloved employees this month, Paul Thomas - grandfather of Justin Thomas, PGA Professional.

Paul's accomplishments over his 65 years as a PGA Professional are extensive:

- Worked in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and Florida
- Won Quarter Century PGA Championship in 1987
- Qualified and played in National PGA Championship
- Qualified and played in U.S. Open Championship
- Qualified and played in 3 Senior Open Championships
- Won 2 Central Ohio PGA Championships
- Won 2 Columbus Senior Opens
- Played several Senior Tour Events
- Won Queen City Open (Cincinnati)
- Won many Central Ohio Pro Ams

Paul was a Golf Professional at Zanesville Country Club for 26 years, and ran a Golf School in New York State for 13 Years.

Paul has retired from giving golf lessons, but loves the game and can been seen out at Foxfire often greeting golfers and giving the occasional "golf tip".

Thank You Paul, for your PGA career and being a member of the Foxfire Family!
